SHAKEY'S PIZZA the family fun place—weekends the highchair set is in full swing —also welcomes teenagers.

In fact, Shakey's has a room especially for them, separate from the moms, dads and kiddies. It's the Collegiate Room

It's the Collegiate Room and a great place to go after the game or movie. There's dancing to the juke box and Shakey's 21 different kinds of pizza, ONLY Shakey's pizza, never a substitute. Soft drinks are the thirst quenchers. ...

Ever get that scrunched to-gether feeling at the theater? UNITED ARTISTS gives guests an oversize 38 inch seat as opposed to the usual 29 incher.

Another comfort feature is the ticket desk INSIDE the foyer. There's no standing outside on drizzly evenings (my apologies to the Cham-ber of Commerce) or warm afterneous waiting for tickets. afternoons waiting for tickets and change.

The PEN & QUILL Hotel-The PEN & QUILL Hotel-Restaurant will hold its gala New Year's Eve party in the sparkling Manhattan Room. Featured will be the vocal quartet, The Eligibles, who present a Las Vegas-style show, plus The Instrument-als, who back up the song-and-fun group as well as play for dancing.

The Palos Verdes Players

The Palos Verdes Players have transformed a dream into reality and will now present "continuous theater in their own playhouse."

The well-known group of thespians has worked towards this goal for the past 30 years and now they are "at home" in the building formerly occupied by the Palos Verdes Post office which is located in the Palos Verdes Post office which is located in the Palos Verdes Plaza.

Under the direction of Jerry Dulin, theater manager, and George Tremble, business manager, members have "turned to" in an all out effort to ready the playhouse for the first production of 1964, "Tunnel of Love" by Peter de Vries. This comedy, centered on suburban life in Connecticut, will open Jan. 24 under the direction of Rosemary Buell.

The Palyers welcomes the participation of Southwest residents interested in acting or other phases of the theater. Charmain Windsor, at FR 8-2148, is membership chairman.
